Book Review

What are you reading?

Gatwick Bear by Anna Cuffaro (Sparkling

Books) £9.99 ISBN: 978-1-907230-02-8

This book is great for kids like you!

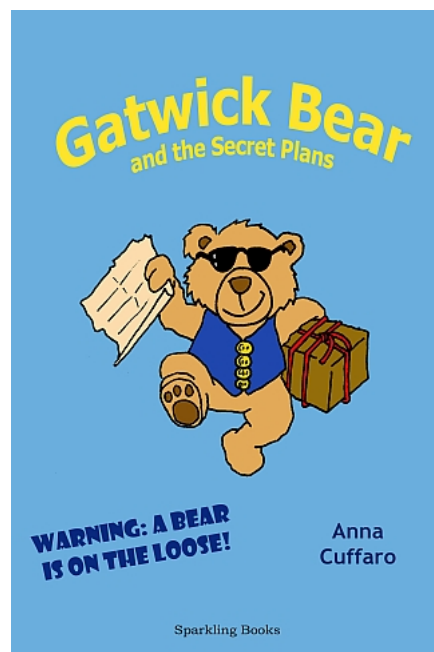

Gatwick Bear lives at Gatwick airport. In this adventure he is told to leave the airport, so he travels to Switzerland and gets into some fun and trouble along the way. He becomes part of a new family when he meets some other bears, but none of them realise that they've been misidentified as bank-robbers!

Will they be caught by the police and blamed for someone else's crime? Or will they persuade everyone that they are honest bears really?

Read the book and find out! Buy it here: www.sparklingbooks.com/gatwick_bear.html

Note to foster carers:

Gatwick starts off homeless, with all of his belongings fitting inside one bag, and by the end of the book he has a new family that love and care for him. He deals with lots of rejection and misunderstanding. He wants to be independent and look after his little sister. He's a helpful bear, but gets into trouble without realising what he's doing. Many of the children in your care will relate to Gatwick and the situations he finds himself in. The book also throws in lots of useful facts so that children will learn while reading.
